

Basketball Practice Plans

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT®
FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Ages: 11 and Up

The players build upon the tactics and skills they learned in the previous seasons.

OVERVIEW

The practice plans that follow provide a guide for the season and incorporate the following key components:

- Practice Goals: The goals of the practice are your main focus.
- Team Circle: The team circle time that kicks off each practice is an opportunity for you to cover key character development concepts with your players. The Y's four core values—caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility—can all be related to many situations that arise while playing basketball. For example, playing cooperatively with teammates shows that you care about them. Again, we'll suggest some specific ideas for briefly discussing character development values during team circle time.
- Tactics and Skills: Tactics are knowing what to do during the game (and when to do it), and they require an understanding of the problems faced by each team during the game and how those problems can be solved. Ways to maintain possession of the ball would be tactics. Skills are the physical skills traditionally taught, such as passing or shooting the ball or controlling the ball during play.
- Rules and Traditions: You will teach the rules of the sport to young children gradually, as part of playing games and learning skills. Traditions are those unwritten rules that players follow to be courteous and safe, such as raising your hand when you foul someone or playing cooperatively with the others on your team.
- Fitness Concepts: Even young children can understand some simple concepts about health and fitness, such as the idea that exercise strengthens your heart.

Put your arms on their shoulders. We are going to walk forward, as a group, using first the right foot and then the left. We will walk slowly, so take your time so we all move together. Get ready with your right foot, now step; get ready with your left foot, now step." Repeat for four steps. SAY: "Let go of your teammates. Did we have to work together to walk as a group? We did. All season we will need to work together, with everyone doing their part. We will talk about four values that are a key to success for all players—caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility. We need to understand and use these values or qualities every practice and game."	N/A
