

Darryl Head
Senior Vice President / COO
YMCA of Northwest North Carolina

Darryl joined the YMCA of Northwest North Carolina in 2006 as Vice President of Operations and Executive Director of the William G. White, Jr. Family YMCA, providing leadership to many of the membership branches within the Association. In this role, he also worked with staff and boards on membership service and sales, program development, and the Annual Giving Campaign. In 2013, he became Senior Vice President and was named Chief Operating Officer in January of 2015. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Growing up in YMCA programs like Adventure Guides (formerly Indian Guides) and youth sports, Darryl's first job was as a lifeguard and sports official in 1987 at his local YMCA. He has been working for the Y ever since, holding many positions throughout high school and college, as well as working summers as a counselor at YMCA Camp Sea Gull. His professional career with the Y has spanned 20 years and various positions at YMCAs in Nashville, Raleigh, and Winston-Salem.

Darryl currently serves on the board of the Reynolda Rotary Club as Vice President and will assume the duties of President in 2016. With a long dedication to youth development, Darryl often volunteers to coach youth sports teams, including basketball, flag football, and soccer. He currently coaches basketball at the Y, as well as lacrosse and football in community leagues.

Darryl and his wife, Karin, live in Winston-Salem with their two children, Reed and Hayden. He is currently training for his next half marathon with his Y running group.
