

Stan Law
President and CEO
YMCA of Northwest North Carolina

Stan Law has served the YMCA professionally since February 1990. He currently serves as President and CEO of the YMCA of Northwest North Carolina, a role that he has served since May 2017. The YMCA of Northwest North Carolina is a $35 million dollar Association serving 9 counties through its 17 branches, resident camp, and over 40 program locations.

Prior to his current role, Stan has served the Y in the following roles:

- President & CEO with the YMCA of Greater Birmingham, Alabama – 4 years
- Chief Operating Officer with the YMCA of Greater Cincinnati, Ohio – 2 ½ years
- Executive Vice President of Organizational Advancement with the YMCA of Metropolitan Washington, DC – 2 ½ years
- Various roles from Program Director to Community Vice President with the YMCA of Greater Charlotte, North Carolina – 16 years
- Outreach Director with the Gaston County YMCA, Gastonia North Carolina – 2 years

Stan has served on a host of local, regional and national committees with the YMCA. He has been very engaged in his communities serving on multiple community Boards and Committees and has been nominated to participate in Leadership Classes in all the communities where he has lived.

Stan was first connected to the Y as a participant in day camp and swim lessons at two branches in his hometown of Charlotte, North Carolina. Stan later served as Executive Director of both of those branches.

Stan earned a BA degree in Social Sciences from Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, North Carolina.

Stan is married to Anita Law a registered nurse and they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in October of 2017. Stan is a former high school and college tennis player, marathon runner and triathlete. Currently he enjoys long distance cycling, walking and golf.